Blue Mounds State Park programs and events

Have you ever wondered how the 100-foot Sioux Quartzite cliff formed at Blue Mounds State Park? Explore the park’s ever-changing landscape on this 1-mile hike across “the mound” from 7 to 8:15 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 13, at Let’s Rock! Geology Hike. Be prepared for uneven prairie grass terrain as we discover how ancient rivers, glaciers, and humans have affected the land we see today. Meet at the Eagle Rock Vista Trailhead. Fly on over to the naturalist table from 2 to 4 p.m. Friday, Aug. 14, to find out what things with wings can be found here in the park at Things with Wings. After visiting with the naturalist test your observation skills by going on a scavenger hunt. *Activities take about 10-15 minutes. Meet at the amphitheater. Calling all junior rangers! Get ready to meet two of the park’s smallest hunters: dragonflies and damselflies from 2 to 2:30 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 15, at Junior Rangers: Dragons and Damsels. After discovering what makes these little creatures such effective predators, make a small craft to fly home with. This program is designed with children ages 6-12 in mind, though all ages are welcome. All children must be accompanied by an adult. Meet at the picnic shelter. National S’mores Day is Aug. 10. Celebrate with some fun facts and marshmallow goodness. The naturalist will host a campfire with all the s’mores fixings and nature trivia at Nature: Gimme S’more! from 7 to 8 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 15. Test your knowledge about the local plants and animals of Blue Mounds State Park. Bonus points for roasting the perfect marshmallow! Meet at the amphitheater. Beavers are one persistent rodent! One stick at a time they shape the surrounding landscape with their engineering prowess. From 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. Sunday, Aug. 16, stop by the naturalist’s table to discover what adaptations beavers use to construct their dams and lodges. Then see how your building skills compare to a beaver’s by building your own mini dam. Activities take about 10-15 minutes. Meet at the picnic area. Programs will be canceled in the event of poor weather conditions. Check online or call the provided phone number. If you need an accommodation, please contact park staff at bluemounds.statepark@state.mn.us or at 507-283-6051, two weeks prior to the event.
