It's All About Small!

Did You Know?

Small Business Saturday®, taking place on the last Saturday of November, was launched by American Express in 2010 and encourages consumers to "Shop Small®" in support of local businesses. Since 2011, Small Business Saturday has been officially cosponsored by U.S. Small Business Administration!

72% of Shoppers say they'll continue to "shop small" throughout the holiday season because of the positive impact it has on their community

68¢ of Every Dollar Spent at a small business stays in the local community

Every Dollar spent at small businesses Generates an Additional 48¢ in local business activity due to employees and local businesses purchasing local goods and services
